

BRITISH WILDLIFE CROSSWORD

At the League, protecting beautiful British wildlife is at the heart of what we do. Test your knowledge with our wonderful wildlife crossword.

DOWN

1. A non-native duck with distinctive orange 'sails' originating from China.
3. This flower's scientific name is the Hyacinthoides non-scripta.
4. An alternative name for birds of prey.
7. The biological ability bats use to navigate.
9. The only deer species in Britain with palmate antlers.
10. The Gatekeeper, Comma and Red Admiral are all species of this creature.
11. An otter lives in a...
14. A poisonous reptile found on heathland.
15. The collective noun for a group of foxes.

ACROSS

2. Live in burrows or warrens.
5. Lost a race with a tortoise in Aesop's Fable.
6. A trait that British hedgehogs, dormice and bats share. They all...
8. The name given to a fox's tail.
12. A camouflaged fish that can change colour based on its surroundings.
13. This tree's seeds are winged, set in pairs, and usually fall to the ground spinning.
16. The name of the process when a hedgehog sheds its baby spines and grows adult spines.
17. The green woodpecker's call is known as a...
18. A long bodied, semi-aquatic mammal that swims using its rear limbs.