NESTING CROSSWORD 10 12

ACROSS

- This bird gave its name to a famous poem by Edgar Allen Poe. It typically nests in late February.
- Many birds use moss in their nest building for this purpose.
- This bird lays its eggs in the nests of other species, which then rear the parasitic young alongside their own.
- 10. A pheasant's nest is called a _____
- 12. These birds tend to lay one to three camouflaged eggs directly on the beach.
- 13. The nest of a wasp is called a _____

DOWN

- These birds don't make their own nests, instead choosing to move into an old nest built by a crow or even a squirrel.
- 2. The webs of this creature are a crucial ingredient for many birds' nests.
- 4. This bird typically finds holes in house roofs and lines them with grass to make its nests.
- 5. This common substance helps strengthen the structure of many birds' nests.
- 7. Guillemots nest on the side of _____
- The home of a badger is called a ______.
- 11. Another name for a squirrel's nest.

Did you enjoy this crossword? Click right to try out more of our Animal Advocate activities.

TAKE ME THERE

NESTING CROSSWORD The answers... 0 Ε Ρ S G I F Μ D С 0 G Ε С R D R R Ε R 10 С С D U 0 D Ε Κ Ο 0 W F Τ 11 W D F Т 12 Τ Τ L F Ε R Ν S Ε 13

ACROSS

3. This bird gave its name to a famous poem by Edgar Allen Poe. It typically nests in late February.

S

Ε

Ρ

- 6. Many birds use moss in their nest building for this purpose.
- This bird lays its eggs in the nests of other species, which then rear the parasitic young alongside their own.
- 10. A pheasant's nest is called a _____
- 12. These birds tend to lay one to three camouflaged eggs directly on the beach.
- 13. The nest of a wasp is called a _____

DOWN

R

Υ

- These birds don't make their own nests, instead choosing to move into an old nest built by a crow or even a squirrel.
- 2. The webs of this creature are a crucial ingredient for many birds' nests.
- This bird typically finds holes in house roofs and lines them with grass to make its nests.
- 5. This common substance helps strengthen the structure of many birds' nests.
- 7. Guillemots nest on the side of _____
- The home of a badger is called a ______.
- 11. Another name for a squirrel's nest.

Did you enjoy this crossword? Click right to try out more of our Animal Advocate activities.

TAKE ME THERE

